

Archdiocese of Philadelphia
Virtual PREP Classroom and Recording

Parent/Guardian Acknowledgment Form

Student's Name: _____

Catechist's Name: _____

In order to provide continuity of instruction during the Covid 19 pandemic, the Parish Religious Education Program (PREP) of St. Joseph Parish in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will use an interactive, in-person virtual classroom provided through _____(name the platform.) Parents/guardians who chose this option for PREP are expected to supervise their child/children during the scheduled instructional time and in accordance with the parish "netiquette." Students should keep their camera on so the catechist can view them. Since this is the new learning environment, the background should be free of any inappropriate or distracting images or content. Students should be dressed appropriately. Students must be respectful of the catechist, follow his/her directions, and be participatory in lessons, activities and discussions.

I understand that my child's PREP session will be recorded with his/her face and name displayed, The recording stored on the parish website. A link to the recording will be shared with PREP families whose children were unable to join the scheduled PREP session time.

My signature below indicates my understanding and acknowledgment of the above terms for in-person virtual PREP sessions and gives my permission for my child to participate in these sessions and for the video and audio recording of my child during virtual PREP lessons and activities.
